Shri Arun Kumar Sharma, counsel for the petitioner.

Heard.

In view of the limited nature of prayer made when the matter is taken up for hearing, which is for a direction to the authority to dispose of the appeal filed by the petitioner, no useful purpose would be served in keeping this writ petition as the same can be disposed of at this stage with an appropriate direction.

Admittedly, for absence without prior permission a departmental proceeding was initiated against the petitioner in which the charges were found proved and order of dismissal followed. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that a departmental appeal has been filed which has not yet been considered and disposed of by the authorities.

In the opinion of the Court since the departmental appeal has been filed, it needs to be considered and disposed of by the authority on its own merits. Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of by directing the appellate authority to dispose of the petitioner's appeal within a period of twelve weeks from the date of
